

Please protect New Jersey's DO NOT CALL law. My home was constantly disrupted by telemarketing calls to the point we couldn't stand it anymore. We found ourselves shouting at the marketers whenever they called.

We are intitled to the right to privacy especially within our own homes. Since inacted, the Do Not Call Law has reinstated peace within our home.